Hello everyone! Thank you to everyone who helped with or participated in the Mardi Gras luncheon /party. Deuces Wild, Upbeat line dancers, all did a great job. Have you attended one of our luncheons lately? We have a good time. Come join us! Bring a covered dish or pay $5.00. You may meet an old friend or make a new one.

Mardi Gras Court

Our Outgoing King, Thomas Bassinger (1st row far right). Standing in for Outgoing Queen Margie Syzmonik is Jaqueline Cumbest (2nd from right). Our Duchesses were Sandra Yelder (third from right) and Ida Raiola (far left). King of Mardi Gras was James Wess (2nd from left). And our 2020 Mardi Gras Queen was..... Nancy Williams! Ms. Nancy has been active at the center for many years. She is involved with and helps organize our Upbeat Linedancers and exercise classes. She also teaches wreathmaking classes at the center. Thank you to the Pascagoula Police Department for providing escorts for our lovely Mardi Gras Court.

St. Patrick's Day: For Tuesday lunch on the 17th, we will celebrate St. Patrick's Day. We'll be listening to Irish music and eating corned beef and cabbage. Don't forget to wear green!

Orientation for the "Healthplex" Fitness Room: 1st Wednesday each month at 11am. Everyone must have a current medical release form on file. Orientation must only be completed once, not yearly. If you don't know the status of your form, or have any other questions, call 769-8329.

Triad Scam Slam X: Friday, March 6th, 10am-1pm. Pascagoula Senior Center. Yes, this is the opportunity to meet and hear from those professionals who deal with criminals every day. We will learn about the latest "scams"; especially those who target senior adults. Box lunch provided.

Acting Classes: Mac is starting up a new round of acting classes. If you would like to join in, now is the time. Classes are on the 1st, 3rd, and 5th Thursdays each month from 1:30 to 3:30, $20 for each class. As always, we do not have a credit card reader so cash or checks only please.

Parade: Pascagoula's Downtown is hosting the 4th Annual St. Patrick's Day Night Parade on Friday March 13th at 7:30. Come early and enjoy the shops and restaurants of Anchor Square and the rest of Pascagoula's Main Street.

Easter Luncheon (Spring-a-bration!): Our luncheon on April 7th will be a celebration of Easter and all things Spring! Dust off your bonnets or hats and seersucker and come have fun with us. Clip a handful of yard flowers or wildflowers on your way over to add them to our big spring bouquet.
