

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF PASCAGOULA, MISSISSIPPI APPROVING SUBMISSION OF AMERICAN RESECUE PLAN ACT PROJECTS TO JACKSON COUNTY GOVERNMENT FOR FUNDING CONSIDERATION

WHEREAS, the City of Pascagoula in May 2022 received approximately $2.3 million in American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) funds from the federal government in response to the COVID-19 pandemic; and

WHEREAS, the Jackson County Board of Supervisors is considering funding opportunities for Municipalities in Jackson County to utilize a portion of County ARPA Funds as matching funds for projects that meet the specific water and wastewater criteria; and

WHEREAS, through Jackson County providing matching funds to these municipal matched projects these funds can be combined between the City and County and be submitted to the State which could be matched on a 1:1 ratio; and

WHEREAS, the city may only utilize its ARPA funds to be considered for matching funds from Jackson County and the State of Mississippi for these projects; and

WHEREAS, to meet the July 8, 2022 submission deadline for projects to Jackson County we are presenting six project applications for your review and approval to submit for potential matching funds.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. That the City Council of Pascagoula, Mississippi hereby approves the submission of these six project applications to be considered for ARPA matching funds from Jackson County and the State of Mississippi.
